

MARK SHERMAN

ADVISOR

Mark brings more than 20 years of human resources experience and 10 years of financial expertise to FirstPerson, helping our clients make better benefit decisions and providing guidance in complex situations. His education as a CPA and tax practitioner adds to his benefit-buying and implementation background. Clients receive the advantage of sound advice incorporating different facets of the employee-benefit process.

Previously, Mark was a senior consultant at Benefit Consultants and also held several senior human resources positions at prestigious companies such as Price Waterhouse, Walker Information, Universal Flavors, and Brightpoint.

Mark enjoys traveling, and walking his twin German shepherds, Bogie and Bacall. He also spends his free time supporting the cause of the Indiana Special Olympics, where he serves on the advisory board.

Mark graduated from Manchester College with a BS in accounting. Mark is a member of the Anthem Agent Advisory Council, the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce's Health Care Policy Committee, UHC Advisory Council, and the Manchester College Board of Trustees. He is also a founding board member of the International Kidney Stone Institute.
