Temeka Easter

Temeka Easter is the Institutional Relationship Manager for the CollegeChoice 529 Direct Savings Plan. Her keen understanding of 529 plans in general, and CollegeChoice 529 in particular, make her a valuable resource for spreading the word about saving now so children can have a brighter tomorrow.

Temeka brings passion, excitement, and commitment to the topic of saving for college, and can inspire any audience to take action to prepare for higher education. She is currently saving for her own two children's future college expenses.

Temeka has vast experience in working with organizations and individuals about college savings:

- Eleven years of experience in the financial services industry and five years working with 529 plans.
- Frequent guest speaker at organizations and business meetings about the need to prepare for college costs.
- Educational background: Masters of Human Resource Management from Keller Graduate School; PHR (Professional Human Resources) certification; member of IndySHRM.
- FINRA Series 7 and 63 licenses.

The benefit of 529 plans — with less paperwork, cost, and effort.
